THE SALT LAKE HERALD.

ESTABLISHED JUNE 5, 1870.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH: FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1900

NUMBER 156

JUDGE KING'S ELECTION IS EXTREMELY PROBABLEReturns Show That He Will Defeat George Sutherland for Congress.Robert C. Lund, for State Treasurer, Only Forty-five Votes Behind Dixon and Likely Will Win Out.

William H. King has more than an even chance of remaining in congress after March 4 next as the representative from the people of Utah.

Returns received by The Herald covering a vote of about 87,000 place him 15 in the lead of George Sutherland, his Republican opponent.

In this estimate practically complete returns from the following counties are included: Beaver, Cache, Davis, Grand, Iron, Juab, Millard, Morgan, Piute, Rich, Salt Lake, Sevier, Summit, Tooele, Wasatch, Washington and Weber. Estimates are made liberally for Mr. Sutherland in Carbon, Garfield, San Juan and Wayne.

There is also a missing district—Patriot Green—in Sanpete county, which will give Mr. Sutherland a majority, which will be more than respected undoubtedly as the belated returns come in from the various precincts.

These returns and estimated vote, which give King 135 majority, also show a Republican electoral majority of over 1,000. It is probable the McKinley majority in the state will be under 1,700.

From the subjoined table one can quickly see how close the vote on congressman really is. Under normal conditions the missing and estimated districts would be good for 1,500 Democratic majority. Utah county, which went about 500 on the election, is estimated 200 Republican on congressman.
It probably may do better for Judge King. Garfield, which gave Eldredge 128, is credited with 175 for Sutherland.
San Juan is counted fifty Democratic.
It should give seventy-five, and possibly 100. Wayne went forty Democratic two years ago. It is placed as Republican by fifty.

For state treasurer also the race is extremely close. Dixon being only forty-five in advance of Lund, whose support will undoubtedly be large in Washington county, from which only the straight party vote has been wired.
Mr. Lund will also run very strong in all the southern counties.

Outside of Judge King and Mr. Lund the Republican ticket is elected by majorities at present reported as follows:

Wells ..... 1,777
Barclay ..... 2,258
Hammond ..... 1,529
Reed ..... 614
Nelson ..... 775
Tinsley ..... 1,488

The official canvass, which will be required to determine the result in the congressional race and the treasurership, will occur on Nov. 26.

Following is the table showing the electoral vote and vote on congressman in detail:

| COUNTIES.  | King, D. | Sutherland, R. | Vote 1898. |

SOCIETY NOTE—"Mr. Croker goes to England for his health."

SAY LYNCH AND KING MUST DIEJury Finds Both Guilty of Murder In First Degree.SLAYERS OF COLONEL PROWSE CONVICTEDKing Curses When His Fate Is Made Known.Death to Robert L. King and James Lynch.

Such was the message that the jurors brought to the two men who murdered Godfrey Prowse, after they sat late and nervous for two hours yesterday afternoon while their twelve judges were locked up in secret deliberation.

As the jurors filed into Judge Booth's court room, both prisoners eyed the face of each man as though trying to read the verdict there. Little consolation was to be got from the countenances of the members of the panel.
They were solemn and gloomy. The court room was in a hush of silence as the men took their places in the jury box and answered to their names as called by the clerk. Then Foreman Allan T. Dorsey stood and in a clear voice said:

"We, the jurors, find the defendants

James Lynch.

Robert L. King and James Lynch guilty of murder as charged."

The prisoners kept their eyes riveted on the juror's face, hoping against hope that a recommendation for mercy would follow. They were doomed to disappointment for the foreman sat down without another word. Neither prisoner moved a muscle, but those who were near King could see his eyes kindle with a flash of hatred. A few minutes later when asked if he had any comment to make on the verdict he broke into a volley of blasphemous abuse against the jurors.

"G—n them, every one," he hissed between clenched teeth. "They're try-

W. A. CLARK IS SUPREME

Thirteen Votes Over All Others In Montana Legislature.DALY HAS ONLY EIGHT ENTIRE REGULAR DEMOCRATIC TICKET GIVEN MAJORITIES.Helena, Mont., Nov. 8.—Complete returns show the next legislature will be composed of fifty-three Clark Democrats, thirty-three Republicans, eight Daly Democrats and one Populist.

Practically complete returns show Bryan's majority to be 8,000, while Toole, for governor, and the rest of the Clark Democratic state ticket, including congressman and associate justice of the supreme court, are elected by 7,400. Bryan carried the state four years ago by over 35,000.

CLOSE SHAVE FOR QUAY.

Republican Boss Is Only 3 Votes Ahead.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 8.—It is figured here by those who have kept close watch of the contest for the control of the next legislature that the two branches will line up as follows:

House of Representatives: Quay, Republicans, 106; anti-Quay Republicans and fusionists, 55; Democrats, 31. Total, 294.
According to these figures the Quay Republicans have only three votes above the 135 necessary to organize the house.
Senate: Quay, 12; anti-Quay, 13. Total, 25. This would make the senate a tie between Quay and anti-Quay, and creates an interesting situation as regards the organization of the body and the disposition of what the Democrats and anti-Quay Republicans may consider to be partisan legislation and subnational appointments.

On joint ballot, according to these figures, Mr. Quay, if he is a candidate for United States senator, will have 131 votes, three more than the number necessary to a choice. Mr. Quay has declared that he will not be a candidate, and his friends say he will stick to his determination. The legislature ballots for senator on Jan. 13.
The leaders of the business men's league, which organization has handled the fight against Mr. Quay in many of the counties for several years, assert that they have enough votes to prevent Mr.
Quay's re-election. They further declare that Mr. Quay's friends cannot organize either branch of the legislature.

Quay Claims Victory.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Former Senator M. S. Quay, who will leave here tomorrow morning for Florida, tonight gave out the following statement for publication:

"The contest on Tuesday resulted in a sweeping victory for the stalwart Republicans of the state. The senate will be organized by the majority, no matter what statement to the contrary may be made by insurgents or hostile newspapers. Senator W. F. Snyder, of Chester county, will be elected president pro tem of the senate, and Representative W. H. Marshall, a stalwart Republican from Allegheny county, will be speaker of the house. I will be elected senator by about 150 out of a total vote of 254 on the first ballot in joint assembly."

GOLDBUGS WANT TO "REORGANIZE"Men Who Knifed Party's Candidate Seek Control.DICKINSON, CARLISLE, ET AL. IN SCHEMEStone Says "Let Them Go Out and Get Delegates."Chicago, Nov. 8.—A special to the Chicago from Detroit, Mich., says:

Don M. Dickinson is authority for the statement that within three weeks a meeting will be held in New York City to outline a plan of reorganization for the Democratic party.

He says the call for the meeting will have the signatures of prominent Democrats.

The meeting, Mr. Dickinson says, will be attended by Democrats of both gold and silver leanings.
The call for the meeting will be sent out in a few days. It will be mailed broadcast throughout the land appealing to all Democrats, gold and silver alike.

STONE SCOFFS AT PLAN.

Intimates Traitors to Party Are Back of Scheme.

New York, Nov. 8.—Ex-Governor Stone, vice chairman of the Democratic national committee, said at the Hoffman house tonight in regard to the proposed reorganization of the Democratic party:

"This talk about a reorganization is absurd. The Democratic party is already organized. If by reorganization is meant a change in the national committee, that will have to be done at the next national convention. If by reorganization is meant a radical change of platform with a candidate whose views accord with it, that will have also to await the next national convention.

"If the next national committee I am willing to abide by the verdict of the convention. As a rule those men who clamor for reorganization after defeat are the very ones that contributed to defeat. There are some people who go to a convention and demand a certain platform, insist upon the selection of certain candidates and at their failure changes let them work in their state organizations for the selection of delegates to bring about those changes."

"This kind of talk always follows the defeat of any party. Had the Republicans been defeated they would be talking reorganization today."

BRYAN DECLINES TO TAKE SENATORIAL TOGASays That to Do So Would be Unfair to Friends Who Supported Him Loyal.Declares the Battle Must Go On Until Democracy Triumphs Over Plutocracy—Looks to 1904.

New York Nov. 8.—The Evening Journal prints the following telegram from William J. Bryan:

"Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8, 1900.

"To the Editor of the Evening Journal:

"You may say officially that under no circumstances would I accept the office of United States senator, even were it tendered me. I made my fight for the presidency and I lost. I am not going to take other men's positions from them.

(Signed) "WILLIAM J. BRYAN."

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—W. J. Bryan tonight gave out the following statement concerning the election:

"The result was a surprise to me, and the magnitude of the Republican victory was a surprise to our opponents as well as to those who voted our ticket. It is impossible to analyze the returns until they are more complete, but, speaking generally, we seem to have gained in the large cities and to have lost in the smaller cities and in the country.

"The Republicans were able to secure tickets or passes for all their voters who were away from home and this gave them considerable advantage. We have no way of knowing at this time how much money was spent in the purchase of votes and in colonization. But while these would account for some of the Republican gains, they could not account for the widespread increase in the Republican vote.

PROSPERITY DID IT

"The prosperity argument was probably the most potent one used by the Republicans. They compared present conditions with the panic times of '93 to '96, and this argument had weight with those who did not stop to consider the reasons for the change. The appeal, 'stand by the president while the war is on' had a great deal of influence among those who did not realize that a war against a doctrine of self government in the Philippines must react upon us in this country. We made an honest fight upon an honest platform, and having done our duty as we saw it, we have nothing to regret.

"We were defeated, but are not discouraged. The fight must go on. I am sure that the Republican policies will be repudiated by the people when the tendency of these policies is fully understood. The contest between plutocracy and Democracy cannot end until one or the other is completely triumphant."

THANKS ALL FRIENDS.

Concerning himself Mr. Bryan said:

"I have come out of the campaign with perfect health and a clear conscience. I did my utmost to bring success to the principles for which I stood. Mr. Stevenson did all that he could; Senator Jones and the members of the Democratic, Populist, silver Republican and anti-Imperialist committees did all they could. Mr. Hearst and his associates in the club organization put forth their best efforts. Our newspapers, our campaign speakers and our local organizations all did their best. I have no fault to find, and no reproaches. I shall continue to take an active interest in politics as long as I live. I believe it to be the duty of the citizen to do so, and in addition to my interest as a citizen, I feel that it will require a life time of work to repay the political friends who have done so much for me.

GIVES FRIENDS A CHANCE.

"I shall not be a senatorial candidate before the legislature which has been elected. Senator Allen deserves the senatorship, which goes to the Populists. Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. W. H.
Thompson are avowed candidates for the senatorship. They de-<
